Partner Georgia Georgiou has extensive experience in all fields of commercial, civil and criminal litigation and procedure. Her other areas of practice include banking litigation, torts and personal injuries, contracts and criminal law. She specialises in family law, including divorce, matrimonial and child custody disputes, adoption and child abduction.

Georgia is ranked among leading lawyers for Dispute Resolution in Chambers Europe, where her expertise in family law, and her “dedication to cases” , are highlighted.

Family Law

Widely acknowledged as one of the country’ s leading family law practitioners, Georgia advises on divorce and separation, child custody, maintenance and care disputes, adoption, cohabitation, alimony, asset separation and management, pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements. Her many years as an experienced litigator, as well as her excellent negotiating skills, are both conducive to achieving successful outcomes for her clients.

Litigation, Arbitration & Mediation

Georgia is a highly skilled litigator, and is involved in complex court litigation, representing clients in a range of civil and commercial disputes. These include multi-jurisdictional corporate and commercial type disputes involving fraud, misrepresentation, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duties, negligence, banking litigation and matters involving banking resolution and liquidation.
